Bella Moglie (Beautiful Wife) is the home of the Breast Cancer Network. It was built specifically for our needs and is where our programs all happen. Unfortunately, the occupancy costs of maintaining such a facility continue to rise and now exceed $67,000 annually. Sponsorship is welcome to help offset the costs of hosting our programs.

Friends of BCN contribute financially or in kind to our mission. All donations of $500 or more are listed on our website and our Donor Wall.
