Our Wellness Center

www.bcm.org/programs/wellness

To learn more about any of these programs with disease:

Financial Assistance

Exercises, wellness, and art

members and includes yoga, Tai Chi, Zumba, Pilates.

BCC offers several of these programs at no charge.

Resilience, health, and exercise classes

survivors, metastatic disease, and young survivors.

Support groups

BCC provides both professionally led and peer-led support groups.

Metastatic Research Initiative

Your contribution will be given directly to the BCM Research Initiative.

The Breast Cancer Network of Wisconsin

www.bcnwi.org

Visit www.bcnwi.org to join a breast cancer discussion forum.

Information and a Donation

Several guest speakers discuss various topics.

November 1 is Breast Cancer Awareness Month, so check out the activities on the calendar.

BCC's annual Education Day is Saturday, and support groups are available after the presentation.

BCC provides financial assistance to those in need.

Education Series

Site 10 to date the latest news and information.

Programs

Support groups are offered to support your journey.

The Breast Cancer Network of Wisconsin (BCN) proudly

is dedicated to ending breast cancer and the support and family and friends of survivors. If you

Mission

BCN offers programming to support your journey through education, supervision, and emotional support.

BCN's mission is to support, educate, and advocate for individuals with breast cancer, their families, and the community.

BCN offers programming to support your journey through education, supervision, and emotional support.

BCN's mission is to support, educate, and advocate for individuals with breast cancer, their families, and the community.